SOVIET CONTROL COMMISSION MOVES,
WILL REDUCE PERSONNEL

EVACUATES BUILDINGS -- Argentinisches Tageblatt, No 19,514, 28 May 50

The buildings on several streets in Halle, the capital of Sachsen-Anhalt, have been evacuated on Soviet orders. Soviet offices from Berlin-Karlshorst will be transferred to this location. The buildings in Leipzig which were requisitioned a few months ago to house these Soviet offices have been returned. The evacuation measures in Halle seem to indicate an impending transfer of individual departments from the Central Soviet Control Commission.

TO REDUCE PERSONNEL -- Argentinisches Tageblatt, No 19,531, 14 Jun 50

ADN, Soviet-licensed German News Agency, reports that the Soviet Control Commission in Germany will reduce its personnel by 20-25 percent beginning 1 August or 1 September 1950.
